

Press Release

Muskoka Parry Sound Genealogy Group welcomes Margaret Hall, UE as a guest speaker for a presentation on United Empire Loyalists Thursday August 25th at the Muskoka Boat and Heritage Centre, Gravenhurst at 7:00 p.m.

Margaret taught for many years. In search of loyalist ancestors, she joined the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada in the early 80s and received her Loyalist certificate in 1988. She went on to become President of her Branch and eventually Vice President Eastern Central Region for the U.E.L.A.C.

With research skills finely honed by these experiences, she went on to found a small family genealogy research business which continues to this day.

Now widowed, Marg continues to make her home in Ottawa, where 2 of her 3 children live, spending her summers at her beloved second home her cottage in East Parry Sound.

If you have United Empire Loyalist ancestors in your family tree, this will help you find accessible Canadian and American documents, websites and others.

“Ancestors are watching and they will take you in the right direction – when it is time”
